UNIVERSITY SKIERS BUSY ON SATURDAY

A. L. Gravel Wins Second Place at Gorham

FAST SURFACE

Inter-Faculty Ski Run Also Staged from Stadium

Saturday again saw considerable activity by the McGill Ski and Snowshoe Club, and different members of the club took part in two very interesting evens.

On the invitation of the Carnival Committee the Club was represented by two jumpers at the Gorham Winter Carnival. The competition in this meet was keen and representatives were there from several American colleges, as well as from the Berlin, N.H., and Gorham Ski clubs.

The weather was ideal for the contest, satisfying both spectators and competitors, it being mild enough to be thoroughly enjoyed by the onlookers and also sufficiently cold to make he chute fast for jumping. A large crowd witnessed the contest and they were all in a true carnival spirit, enjoying to the fullest extent all the slight mishaps which occurred to the jumpers and also applauding the efforts of each successful jumper. As in the past, McGill was to the fore and A. L. Gravel succeeded in making a jump of 104 feet, thus giving him second place to G. Michelson, of New Hampshire State Colege, whose greatest distance was 105 feet. The great superiority of these first two men to the remaining competitors is evinced by the fact that Gravel cleared a distance 28 ft. farther than the third man.

Style in jumping was also taken into consideration and the total points were as follows:

1. G. Michelson, New Haven State College. Longest jump, 105 ft. Pts.. 362.2.

2. H. L. Gravel, McGill University Longest jump, 104 ft. Pts., 301.6.

J. Thorne, Longest jump, 75.6 ft. Pts., 285.

4. R. Pedersen. Points, 267.

The inter-faculty events being run off by the Club were resumed on Saturday afternoon, and a cross-country ski run was staged. The executive had laid out the course on Friday, which started at the Stadium, down Pine avenue to Park, across Fletcher's Field to one of the bridle-paths and Mount Royal Boulevard, after which it followed the serpentine road over the Outremont mountain to the Cemetery, and then back over Mount Royal and finished at the Stadium. In all, the course was about five miles in length and due to the majority of uphill work was quite difficult.

The best time over the course was made by J. F. Rutherford, Science '26 who finished in 46 minutes 10 seconds. R. S. Wade, of Medicine, came second with a time of 47 minutes 18 seconds, and T. W. Kerr, of Science '26, third in

ARTS-LAW DEBATE ON WEDNESDAY

Resolved that Gov't Ownership of Railways Should be Abolished

Wednesday next, the 24th, is the date of the Arts-Law debate and interest is growing daily, and it is expected that now the exams. are over and there will be a large number of supporters.

Interest in the forthcoming debate to be held on Tuesday evening next between Arts and Law is growing daily, and it is expected that even though it occurs so near the holidays there will be a large number of supporters of both faculties present.

The subject: "Resolved, that the present system of Government Owned Railways in Canada should be abolished," is one that has occupied the minds of the government of the Dominion for several years past now, and the railway problem may be said to be the most important question which comes before the House of Commons every session. The debate should therefore be productive of a great many telling arguments on both sides, and will no doubt be very closely contested. The Arts men are supporting the affirmative side, and the Lawyers the negative. The Arts team will be composed of G. H. Penrose, J. C. Everett and H. Wells, while the Lawyers will be represented by H. O'Hagan and two others who have not yet been chosen.

The gentlemen acting as judges will be Dean Laing, Hon. A. K. Hugessen and W. H. Biggar. A. E. D. Tremaine will be in the chair.

TRAMP AND DANCE

Mandolin Club Assisting at First Tramp of Year

The moon, next Tuesday, if the weather gods are kind, will look down on as merry a crowd of McGill students as ever ascended the slopes of Mount Royal. On that night all who have become weary of study will meet in the Ballroom of the Union, equipped with snowshoes and a fixed determination to forget all the hopes and fears of the past and future months for two short hours.

Those who have participated in these tramps before need no urging to attend this, indeed, they are being restrained with difficulty from camping on the mountain in order to make sure of being present.

However, a few words to first year students may not come amiss. The party will proceed from the Union with everyone assured of a partner of the opposite sex. After the tramp over the mountain, in which sliding down the steeper parts will be indulged, everyone will again gather in the Union, where supper will be served. There will then be dancing until midnight. Patronesses for the evening will be Mrs. Waugh and Mrs. Basil-Williams, with Professors Waugh and Williams.

The Misses Dorothy Hay and Olive Prichard, for the R.V.C., and Miss Margaret Rexford, for the Physical Eds. are putting forth every effort to make the evening a success.

Tickets may be obtained in the Union on the payment of 40c. Snowshoes and moccassins have been arranged for at Brysons, on the second floor of the Woolworth building at the corner of McGill College Avenue and St. Catherine St., through the kindness of Mr. Cussens, of the Mt. Royal Hotel. These will be rented together for 50c.

The executive of the Ski and Snowshoe Club will be greatly indebted to Mr. Logan and the Mandolin Club for the music at the dance.

Remember the time and place: 8 p.m., at the Union.

GRADUATES OF OTTAWA HEAR DEAN LAING

Construction of Gymnasium and Dormitories is Urged

YEAR REVIEWED

McGill Spirit is Praised by Dean

"That the members of the Ottawa Valley Graduate Society of McGill University are of the opinion that since there is no gymnasium or dormitory at McGill University it is expedient in the interests of the students that these be constructed at the earliest possible opportunity."

This was the resolution which was carried unanimously at the annual meeting of the Ottawa Valley Graduate Society which was addressed on January 6th by Dean Laing, of the Faculty of Arts.

In his review of the past year at McGill, Dean Laing impressed the Ottawa graduates as a speaker of charm and ready wit.

First appearance were becoming chronic, said Dean Laing. He had at least 12 such when first appointed to the faculty of McGill. Each morning the 'Daily" remarked that Dean Laing had made his first appearance before this or that society. Of course he was aware that between the lines the reader was informed "Come and hear him and get it over with." It was destined that it should be so, however.

The speaker referred to the Ottawa Valley Society as the oldest McGill graduate society in Canada. It had done great work for the Alma Mater, it had grown up and become great with McGill. In the long course of its existence the members had heard many speeches, and ha dbecome bored to a degree where it had now acquired an immunity. "You hear, yet you hear not; you are conscious, but yet far away," he remarked.

Dr. Laing commenced a discourse on the oft repeated phrase of the average speaker. "Just a few words." When he heard them boom over the pulpit rail on Sunday morning he knew that the preacher meant: "If you hear me a few moments longer you will soon be on your way home with that virtuous feeling that only attendance at church brings about."

A splendid sportsmanlike tribute to the football teams of Queen's and Toronto Universities was paid by the speaker when discussing this year's athletic activites at McGill. The football season had not been altogether successful from McGill's point of view. It was a period that comes to all universities he believed. Graduation in May had deprived the college of many players and it would be some time before another powerful aggregation could be built up.

MANDOLINS TO PLAY AFTER SNOW TRAMP

Activity of Last Term to be Maintained

The McGill Mandolin Club has come through the first term this year with great success, having played before two notable visitors to our college, Admiral Sims and Baron Byng of Vimy. It also became well known to the Montreal public when the Club made its debut at the Allen Theatre.

Now, in entering the second term, they expect to go "over the top" and bring home the bacon," and many engagements that are coming in show that the Club is becoming one of the most popular around college.

Among one of the outstanding of these engagements is that they will assist the "Snowshoe Club" on Tuesday night to make this event of the season most successful, by having their orchestra play for the dancing after the tramp. Another is that the Club has been secured by the Dramatics to be given by the Staff on February 8th. The executive are awaiting the action of the Student Council with regard to another proposed "McGill Night" before accepting any definite engagements.

A practice will be held on Tuesday night at 8.00 at Peate's. A full turnout is requested as two new pieces will be given out. The Club is still open for new members who show the least sign of yielding a pick. (Day labourers need not apply)

"OVER THE HUMP."

The obvious air of relief, not unmixed with one of apprehension, in Freshmen circles, the apparent attitude of indifference assumed by some Sophomores and the evident boredom pictured upon the countenances of a few upper year men to whom the trials of the last few days are merely a repetition of previous years, at the prospect of returning to lectures, all serve as reminders that we are "over the hump," that "mid-terms" are behind us, and that the activities and studies of the next two and a half months will not be shadowed by the proximity of examinations. Indeed, it is a pleasing thought that we have ascended the steep, tiresome slope leading to the end of the first term, and that we have crossed safely over the divide and are now on the "down trail" to the completion of another year at college; for sad as may be the passing of the seasons in some respects, we must bear in mind that each month is one of accomplishment and that we ought rather to dwell upon this latter attainment than upon the fact that here is much less time to be spent in the delightful atmosphere of university life.

There will be a relaxation from intensive study for the next two or three weeks, and the student will find scope for his energies in the field of undergraduate activity. From now until the first week in March will be a time in which almost every club at college, with the exception of those athletic organizations devoted exclusively to the promotion of fall sports, will endeavour to bring its efforts to a climax before the approach of the Finals in April jeopardizes their position. Hockey and Basketball will come and go in this period, the Mock Parliament and the Intercollegiate Debates will be held and the numerous minor clubs will be most active, only to withdraw into obscurity for the last month of the session.

Reflection upon the past, occupation for the present and preparation for the future will be the aim of the student for the succeeding days—and for those that follow.

A CLOSE RACE.

Four games in the Intercollegiate Hockey Series have been played to date; of these four, three have been over-time affairs. It has been many years since competition has been so keen and the evenly balanced league should do a great deal to develop a genuine and lasting interest in the greatest of Canada's pastimes, which is fast becoming internationally famous, having received recognition wherever played, as one of the finest of team games. Intercollegiate competition is always a centre of attention; a more satisfying contest than one between two well-matched university sextettes would be hard to imagine.

University of Toronto and McGill come together for the first time this year a week from next Friday. While 'Varsity is at the top of the league with two games to her credit, McGill and Queens are not far behind with a game each in the "win" column, while each has a loss marked against its name. Definite superiority has not yet been established, and every game will be well worth seeing.

OTHER CAMPUSES

TO CONFOUND EDISON.

Marquette students think they have prepared a list of questions that will put Thomas Edison on his mettle.

If he can answer the questions prepared for him and stand by the results the Marquette men have promised to answer his and admit his contentions as to the lack of brains in college men,

Just a few of the new intellectual ticklers are:

At what age does a man become childish? How old are you?

Who was Thomas Edison and if so, why?

Are the inhabitants of Mars annoyed by college yells?

In what year was the battle of the Broiled Baby Lobsters fought?

If a small boy wins ten marbles in one day, and it takes four eggs to make a certain cake, how long will it take a cross-eyed cricket to lick a cockroach with a cork leg? Why?

LOVE DENIED.

In comparison to Michigan students, who in a recent "heart's desire" questionnaire, expressed their chief want as love, two out of every three of some 100 Ohio State students, interviewed at random on the campus, make love play second fiddle to "a decent Thanksgiving vacation" so that they might partake of turkey at the parental fireside. Have they girls back home?

Like their Michigan brethren, however, they gave high places to friends, success, and millions. High-priced motor cars of all makes vied with each other for prominence with some. Others gave children, dogs, satisfactory husbands or wives, and perpetual youth, about equal prominence.

SHAKESPEREAN PART.

Romeos, Calibans, Juliets, and Lady Macbeths united in the Woman's Gymnasium of Texas University Friday night, in establishing a new tradition of the sophomore girls — Twelfth Night. For the first time in the history of the University, the sophomore girls have had a jolly "get-together." They have set as a precedent for future sophomore classes the impersonation of well-known Shakespearean characters on Twelfth Night.

ANCIENT FLAPPERS

Speaking before the Ottawa Teachers' Institute, Saturday afternoon, Professor MacGillivray of Queen's University, said, "Two thousand years ago the pretty girls wore syncopated skirts, used coloured ochres for a variety of purposes, and in general were as up to date as the girls of today. Their suppleness of figure, he continued, might be assumed, from the numerous etchings in places known to have belonged to the stone period."

DOG AT LECTURES.

Many are those who have eagerly sought after the words of wisdom and knowledge dispersed by Dr. Hunt, of the University of South Carolina, in Economics (and many not so eagerly) but it remained for a member of the canine tribe to distinguish himself Tuesday by wandering down the centre aisle during the lecture, seating himself directly in front of the doctor, and listening for ten minutes with rapt attention and intelligence. Following this he moved sedately up a side aisle and out the door to ponder upon the weighty matter he had obtained.

FRIDAY WILL SEE NEXT INFORMAL

Tickets on Sale Tuesday at One O'clock

On Friday night next, Jan. 26th, the Union will be the scene of the first social function of the New Year, as far as college activities are concerned. The occasion will be the fourth informal of the session. There seems to be no doubt at all that this will be the most popular informal of the year, as it comes at the time that everyone is feeling more or less fed up with studying for exams. and should prove a welcome break in the old grind. As the Editor in Chief so aptly puts it: "There is nothing like a good dance except two good dances." We guess he is right at that!

The McGill Dance Orchestra will be heard from for the first time this year at the dance. Those who have heard it before need no telling about the music; those who haven't had the privilege of dancing to its music beto. A programme of the latest hits fore have something to look forward has been promised for this dance.

The catering will be handled by the Union Cafeteria as usual, and will be of the best.

Tickets will go on sale at the porter's desk in the Union at one o'clock sharp on Tuesday. The line will form shortly before that time. Owing to the demand that there will be, all prospective purchasers of tickets are advised to be there not later than one o'clock.

The boy was in the reading room,
He did not hear the bell,
And when he got to English class,
Professor gave him . . . extra readings.

CAPTAIN CUTTLE'S COLUMN

Well, well, well, here we are again, at peace once more for a little while; and here's wishing you all a very speedy recovery from the exams. To those of our younger brothers, the Freshmen, who have achieved the scholastic distinction of early graduation, I think I am expressing the sentiments of all my less fortunate readers when I point out to the lucky Christmas grads that it will be a considerable time before they will be troubled again by the Grim Spectre of the Examiner.

And that reminds me. I have a letter here from one of my readers who signs himself "Average Student." "Dear Captain," he says, "One of my professors in the course of a few genial remarks which he made to his class on the subject of education in general and examinations in particular stated that the opinion had been expressed to him that there were too many average students at McGill—the average student who just scrapes along; plugs for his exams, skins through by the hair of his lip, and immediately afterwards forgets all about the subject—this average student must go, there's no room for him at McGill. Now, Captain, I want to ask your opinion. Do you think that the average student deserves this criticism, and that steps should be taken to have him removed? AVERAGE STUDENT.

I can answer this question most sincerely and emphatically in what my youngest little Cuttlefish calls the "infirmative." If the university were able to eradicate the notoriously lazy and unintelligent average student it would give the vast majority—those who are below the average—a chance. This may seem rather hard on my correspondent, but I am sure that most of my readers, especially those of the gentler sex, will agree that if we remove the comparatively small numbers of the average students the vast majority of the under-average may come into its own.

M.A.A.A. ARE WINNERS IN LEAGUE GAME

Intermediates Lose Hockey Fixture 4—0

FAST PACE SET

Both Teams Gave Good Exhibition

The M.A.A.A. intermediate hockey team held McGill intermediates scoreless at Victoria Rink Saturday afternoon while they notched four counters as an undisputable claim to superiority.

The brand of hockey displayed was far in advance of the two games staged just previous to this. There was no let-up on either side from bell to bell but a marked absence of any questionable tactics or even heavy body-checking was noticeable. It was to McGill's advantage to avoid anything of this nature as they were considerably outweighed by the representatives of the Winged Wheel.

The play was actually much closer than the score would indicate, and the only place where the M.A.A.A. team showed superiority was its combination and the work of its goal-tender.

"Windy" Brewer in the McGill goal had an "off" day.. Referee Smail delayed the game for over five minutes until the Red and White net guardian appeared from the dressing-room and perhaps this lateness was responsible in part for the slight unsteadiness of the McGill goalie. He seemed to be able to judge the shots which were peppered at him correctly but almost invariably found difficulty in clearing the puck. Three of the four tallies came as a direct result of this. By coming far out of his net towards the end of the second period he made two or three sensational saves.

James, in the opposite nets, turned in a stellar exhibition with which was mixed a goodly share of luck. The only shot which bulged the twine behind him counted for no score, as the referee's whistle had blown for a McGill offside as the shot was being made.

Maclean and Bell were perhaps the most effective men on the student team. Maclean was perhaps the hardest worker on the ice and repeatedly proved the stumbling block for M.A.A.A. rushes. Weyse, at centre, did some effective back-checking and teamed well with Bell and Proulx on the attack.

Both goalkeepers were called on to make close saves a few seconds after the referee dropped the puck. M. A. A. A. scored their first goal after five minutes of play when Plow's shot bounced off Brewer's stick into the net.

Emo broke up a McGill rush and made a lone sally down the ice but shot wide. James was lucky to save a bullet-like shot from Bell after some neat combination by the McGill forward line. Maclean was hit in the eye by a stick but stayed on the ice and resumed play. The M.A.A.A. goalie saved what looked like a certain score when he came out of his goal to meet a McGill rush. Brewer stopped a hard shot but failed to clear and while he was attempting to get the puck to the side of the rink Ibbotson slammed it into the net. The premature cheering of McGill supporters at what looked like a goal for the Red and White was silenced when the McGill forward who bulged the net was declared to have been offside. Just before the period ended Williamson shoved in the rebound of an easy shot on the Red and White goal-tender. Two substitutions were made in the first period. Pinhey replacing Weyse and McKinsley replacing Proulx.

At the opening of the second period Weyse broke clear for a lone rush but was robbed of a shot at the goal mouth. Ibbotson had his face cut by a skate but returned to the game. With an open goal Bell swung wildly at the puck and failed to shoot. Pinhey replaced Shelly. Plow was sent to the penalty box for tripping Bell. Smith slammed in the fourth goal of the game from a mix-up in front of the McGill goal after a rebound from Brewer's pads. McGill lost their last chance to score a moment later when after a mix-up in front of the M.A.A.A. net James succeeded in getting the puck which had stuck in his pads around the corner of his goal net.

The line-ups were:

McGill II.	M.A.A.A.

Proulx	Plow

Bell	Smith

McLean	Williamson

TRI COLOUR DEFEATED BY VARSITY SIX

Game Went to Three Overtime Periods

SCORE 4—3

Both Teams Without Service of Their Stars

Toronto, Ont., Jan. 20.—Sending the puck through the nets in the third overtime period, Varsity dashed Queen's hopes of victory to the ground and brought one of the most exciting matches ever seen at the Arena Gardens to a 4-3 close. The Toronto crowd yelled itself hoarse for joy when the rubber passed the Tri-colour goalkeeper for the winning goal.

Both teams were without the services of one of their outstanding men. Queen's had to do without Reynolds, while Captain Bill Carson was unable to play for the Blue and White, due to an unfortunate injury to his back. Ned Wright started at centre for Toronto, while Jess Carrick, a junior, and Plexton, an intermedate, acted as spare.

The teams—

Referee—R. W. Hewitson, Toronto.

FIRST PERIOD.

Play was hardly under way before Queen's opened the scoring, W. Brown going down the right boards, working inside the defence and then beating Thompson for the first goal. Varsity pressed but found considerable trouble in penetrating the Queen's defence, but they kept Queen's on the jump. The Tricolor were not idle, and Thompson had a few busy sessions. Louis Hudson put Varsity on even terms half way through the first period, when he went through the defence, pulled Quinn out and shoved the rubber into the empty net.

Varsity 1, Queen's 1.

Play continued fairly even for the next five minutes, both defences proving fairly strong, and most of the attempts to score were at long range. Hudson put Varsity in the lead when he secured behind his own goal, racing down the opposite wing and lifting into the net from a different angle.

Varsity 2, Queen's 1.

Varsity had a slight edge following this counter, but the goalies had but little to do. McDonald drew the first penalty for tripping Hudson just as he was through the defence. First period over. Varsity 2, Queen's 1.

During the first rest period a burlesque game was put on between "Ronie" and the "House of David."

SECOND PERIOD.

Queen's jumped up on even terms thirty seconds after the period opened, when W. Brown slipped one past Thomson on a lift from the wing. McDonald being still in the penalty box, Varsity 2, Queen's 2.

After the equalizer, play livened up considerable and close checking followed. Varsity had an edge on the play, but mussed up several good chances when through the defence.

Just before the period ended, Smith went down, split the Varsity defence and beat Thomson for the goal that gave the Presbyterians the lead.

Selond period over—Queen 3, Varsity 2.

THIRD PERIOD.

Play was very listless for the opening minutes but became lively as the checking became more strenuous. Westman missed the open net on the rebound off Hudson's shot. Varsity tested Quinn several times, with no success. Both teams commenced to use their bodies, and spills were frequent.

Hudson, Quennville and Wrigh broke through, but Quinn made a pretty save off Wright. Quinn saved again when a goal looked certain by coming out, but he was knocked out when he slipped into the puck-carrier.

Varsity tied things up when Harris rushed and shot from outside the defence and Gordon rushed and slammed in the rebound. Varsity 3, Queen's 3.

Varsity attacked strongly, led by Hudson, and only excellent work by Quinn kept the score even. Bad luck and poor shooting by Varsity also helped the Queen's cause, as the Blue and White were the better team in this period. Westman was off in his shooting, and missed several good chances. Period over: Varsity 3, Queen's 3.

FIRST OVERTIME PERIOD.

The teams decided to play until one scored a goal, so that the intermediate O.H.A. game could get under way as soon as possible. Queen's had slightly the better of the argument in the first five minutes having five shots on goal to Varsity's one. Varsity had the edge in the second five, but could not beat Queen's. First overtime score: Queen's 3, Varsity 3.

SECOND OVERTIME PERIOD.

No scoring.

THIRD OVERTIME PERIOD.

Varsity 4, Queen's 3.

VICTORIAS TIE McGILL JUNIORS

Ragged Game Ends in 1—1 Score

Shooting the puck past Monroe in the initial stages of the second period of Saturday afternoon's hockey match, Town of the Victorias, scored what was to be the last goal of the game, and incidentally snatched victory from McGill, the game ending a draw, the score being one all.

Throughout, the play was ragged, little or no team work being displayed by either of the aggregations. The small amount of combination play shown by the Red and White boys during the first few minutes of the game soon died away, and for the rest of the time the game was listless and uninteresting.

McGill, as well as Victoria, found that their main difficulty was in their inability to pass the puck. Shaughnessy's bunch lost more than one possible opportunity of scoring through their inability to step in on their opponents. The Juniors found it impossible to make any use of playing the puck off the boards, a play used to advantage by the senior sextette.

Neither of the goalkeepers had much to do, both were worked to the same extent, in the first period. In the second, Munroe was somewhat harder pressed than DeJean.

The first period was by far the better of the two, there being some attempt at team play during this half.

McGill opened the scoring in the initial period after seven minutes of play. Abbott shot the puck from near centre ice, and it just rolled over Dejean's stick and into the nets. Vics. worked hard during the rest of the period, but were unable to score. Lack of team play was in the main responsible for their failure, individual rushes being relied on throughout by the Maroon men.

Long shots were the feature of the second period. Victorias shot from half and three-quarters way down the ice, some of the shots hit the posts, while others were stopped by Munroe's clever work. Seven and a half minutes after the bell, Town skated up and shot in a stiff one, which glanced off the McGill goalkeeper and went clean into the nets, evening up the score. On several occasions after this the McGill defence seemed to break up completely, but Vics failed to take advantage and did not add to the score.

The teams seemed to be fairly well matched, though McGill had a slight shade over their rivals in what little combination play was exhibited.

For McGill Abbott and Galley played well, while Town put up a steady exhibition for the Victoria team.

The teams lined up as follows:

Victorias.	McGill.
Goal.
Dejean	Munroe
Defence.
Clendenning	Code
Town	Goldie
Centre
Rennie	Abbott

Gillette	Galley

Brady	Hayes

ANNOUNCEMENT OF BASKETBALL DATES

Intercollegiate Schedule is Drawn Up

The following is the final intercollegiate schedule as drawn up last week:

Queen's at Toronto—Jan. 20.
Toronto at McGill—Jan. 27.
McGill at Queen's—Feb. 3.
Toronto at Queen's—Feb. 9 or 10.
McGill at Toronto—Feb. 17.
Queen's at McGill—Feb. 24.

The Red and White team, besides these games, still have the City League to battle through and a trip to St. John, N.B., for the week that Queen's and Toronto meet. This should keep the players busy for the next few weeks and although they have played many games up to date the success or failure of the season still lies before them in the Intercollegiate series.

Despite the fact that examinatons have been held the team has been on the floor on the regular nights during the past week. Both Toronto and Kingston report fast moving championship teams for this year, so that in the next few weeks something is bound to happen.

The City League starts action, too, for the Red and White this year and they meet the championship Alert team in Molson Hall this Wednesday. The game was a fast one when these two teams fought it out last December and although the Red and White won the game it was fast and interesting. The line-up for this game is in all probability the same that has been used in the past series in the States. Mendelsohn and Little, forwards; Manson, centre, and Crain and Amaron on the defence with Hilton Trupel and Blumenstein as spares. Hilton has been back on the floor for a week now and is rapidly recovering from a recent injury and should be a big asset to the defence. Manson, the star of the team, is working at top form. The intermediate team also plays Wednesday night and will stack up against the M.A.A.A. team.

Arrangements are being made to hold the first intercollegiate fixture of the basketball season in the High School gym. The baskets will be moved out from the wall and in all probability a faster game will result.

47 minutes 33 seconds.

Due to the winding nature of the course several competitors wandered slightly off the course but all finished within three minutes of each other. The snowshoe race was called off due to the lack of entries.

The jump at the Stadium is now in a good condition and ready for use by members of the Club. It is not a difficult jump and well suited for practicing, hence should be made good use of.

You never miss the water till the well runs dry

SUPPOSE, tomorrow, all newspapers were discontinued. What a furore would be created. For we must have news!

Or suppose, that beginning tomorrow, the newspapers stopped running advertisements. We would discover that politics, the doings of society, notices of fires, accidents, deaths, scandals, sports, and activities of the police and criminals of one sort or another, add little to our comfort and happiness in this age of enlightenment.

Without advertising we would remain in total ignorance of much that concerns us vitally—news of the things that have to do with the personal, every-day life of each one of us.

Some one might be selling a new, better and more economical food, or a utensil that would add immeasurably to our comfort and well-being, or some material for making shoes or clothing—but we would never know it.

Modern advertising has made and is making the world better housed, better fed, better clothed. It has increased the world's capacity for things that elevate, improve and idealize the important business of living. It is a big vital force in fostering convenient and comfortable life. Without its direction we would overlook much and therefore lose much.

Don't fail to take advantage of advertising. It will prove invaluable to you.

MEMBER OF SCI. '76 ELECTED PRESIDENT OF ONTARIO CLUB

Dr. W. L. Shannon, Arts '09, Med. '11, of Vancouver, B.C., Commits Suicide; Willis Chipman, Sci. '76, President of Professional Engineers of Ontario; E. M. Jelly, Sci. '12, Gains Promotion in C.P.R. Service.

Pauline Frederick, the actress, and Dr. Charles A. Rutherford, Med. '01, of Seattle, Wash., her third husband, have separated.

"There was no misunderstanding," said Miss Frederick, in a recent interview, "but just a complete lack of understanding — incompatability.

"Dr. Rutherford and I were married last February, but we have not lived together since last May. I have not instituted divorce proceedings, nor do I intend to do so. If Dr. Rutherford cares to do so, it is up to him."

Willis Chipman, Sci. '76, of Toronto, has been elected president of the Association of Professional Engineers of Ontario.

"There's not much kick to it," he marked Dr. W .L. Shannon, Arts '09, Med. '11, to a friend in Vancouver, B.C., as he drank a dose of prussic acid. A moment later he was dead. "Did you ever see a man die," he asked, as he lifted the glass to his lips. "Well, you are going to see one do so now," and he drank the contents to the last drop. Dr. Shannon, who underwent physical and mental strain overseas, which affected his health, was at the moment much excited over an automobile collision in which he had just figured. Dr. G. A. Upham, Arts '15, Med. '19, who was instantly summoned, found that nothing could be done for Dr. Shannon.

Other recent deaths have included those of the following graduates:—

Dr. Thornton Craig, Med. '76, at Woodland, Cal., on Dec. 20.

Walter J. Healey, Arts '04, very suddenly at Lachine, Que., on December 16.

Major W. Napier Keefer, Med. '69, for many years in the Indian Medical Service, at Toronto, on December 7.

Dr. Peter A. McDougall, Med. '64, dean of the medical profession in Ottawa, in that city on December 10.

Recent marriages include those of the following:—

Miss Kathleen F. Godwin, M.Sc., Arts '21, and John W. Pinhey, at Ste. Anne de Bellevue, Que., on December 28.

Dr. Stanley A. Holling, Arts '17, Med. '21, and Miss Claudia A. Gardiner, at New York City, on December 19.

Cecil G. MacKinnon, K.C., Arts '00, Law '03, of Montreal, and Miss Miriam Robson, at Salem, Mass.

Dr. L. H. McKim, Med. '12, and Miss Anne Harrower, at Westmount, on December 20.

Miss Kathryn Ross Taylor, Arts '18, and Kenneth M. Ramsay, Sci. '22, at Montreal on January 6.

Amongst those who have recently become fathers are the following:

Sons:—Dr. G. P. Howlett, Med. '06, Ottawa; Walter R. L. Shanks, K.C., Arts '08, Law' 11, Montreal; Dr. H. C. Burgess, Med. '05, Montreal.

FORESTRY MEETING THIS AFTERNOON

Professors and Students Invited to Mt. Royal Hotel

The Canadian Forestry Association extends a cordial invitation to professors and students to attend the general session of the annual meeting in the Mount Royal Hotel this afternoon, to start at two o'clock. The business session will commence at ten o'clock this morning at which various reports will be presented and plans discussed for 1923. Attendance this afternoon will be well worth while. Not only will a number of distinguished forest experts speak, but a series of remarkable motion pictures never before shown in Canada will be flashed on the screen.

Hon. W. R. Motherwell, M.P., Minister of Agriculture, will deliver an address entitled, "Planting Trees on the Prairie,' a new view of a vital western problem. Hon. Mr. Motherwell is a successful Saskatchewan farmer and politician. Professor J. W. Toumey, former Dean of the Yale Forest School, will speak on "The Value of Research in Forest Production," and Dr. Clifton D. Howe, Dean of the aculty of Forestry, University of Toronto, in a popular discussion of "Building Population by Building Forests," a new aspect of the immigration question. Dr. Howe is well known to professors and students of McGill and his address is certain to be intensely interesting, as well as highly instructive. All addresses will be illustrated.

The films to be shown are "Making Idle Acres Work," a re-forestation subject; "Lumberjack Thrills," a Swedish Film in colour; "What a Careless Hunter Can Do," and "Aerial Survey by Camera." This will be the first showing of these pictures in Canada.

This week is veritably "Forestry Week" in Montreal. The Canadian Forestry Association, the Quebec Forest Protective Association, and the Canadian Pulp and Paper Association each are holding their annual meetings here. Tomorrow Dr. Stephen Leacock will address the Quebec Forest Protective Association on the ever timely subject "Our Forest: From the Public's Point of View." Dr. Leacock will be the principal guest of honour at the annual dinner of the Canadian Pulp and Paper Association on Friday evening.

A deeper knowledge and appreciation of Canada's greatest asset, the forest, is essential if the Dominion's trees are to be preserved and increased so that they may be a heritage forever. It is hoped that many professors and students will take advantage of this opportunity this afternoon in the study of the sciences, and more still to those in training for a forestry career.

S.C.A. SPEAKERS AT ERSKINE CHURCH

Toronto Conference Subject of Several Students

Yesterday morning Erskine Presbyterian Church people were privileged to hear three students give their impressions of the recent Canadian Student Conference in Toronto. The three were Miss Weibel, a graduate, and Avison and MacVicar, of the Presbyterian College, who all brought a message that was very inspiring. Dr. Hanson, pastor of the Church, introduced the speakers to the congregation.

Avison, president of the McGill S.C.A., who was the first speaker, rapidly described the origin of the Canadian S.C.M. and the World Student Christian Federation. He then went on to say that the students were looking to the rest of the Canadian young people for co-operation in this great movement. He concluded by telling of the many different races, colours and creeds that had met as equals in Toronto, and of the sympathetic spirit that had been present throughout the conference.

Miss Weibel, in opening, stated that the women at the conference had been given the same attentive hearing as the men and that their opinions had not been overlooked in the discussions. The address of Principal Oliver, of the West, on the problem of the new Canadians had been a challenge for student energies, she said.

MacVicar, the last of the three speakers, assured the congregation that the spiritual element had not been forgotten at the conference. Owing to the cosmopolitan nature of the gathering, the regular sessions did not include any religious devotions, although he felt that an unseen Spirit was present in all the debates; but every morning at ten o'clock and in the evening at nine-thirty intercessory services were held in the chapel, which gave inspiration to all the Christian delegates. There was also a special watchnight service on New Year's eve, and in the last minutes of the dying year, everyone present was moved to consecrate his life afresh to the Great Master. He told of how, towards the end of the conference, the discussions had rather lagged, and a spirit of restlessness at not having found a settlement for the pressing problems was present. However, the solution for these difficulties was not material, but spiritual, and the great body of students realized the truth of the words, "If any man would come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me."

THE PERTINENT DISTINCTION.

"Mother, which is the correct way to express yourself in speaking of a hen: to say she is sitting or setting?"

"My son, that does not interest me at all. What I want to know when I hear a hen cackle is whether she is laying or lying."—Clovis Journal.

However, last years team was a plucky one and had showed no signs of yielding.

The team was simply outclassed; it lacked speed and skill. It seemed to him as if the play was deplorably lacking in variety, the players did nothing but buck the line. He thought the team must have known that such tactics would not win against Toronto or Queen's. It appeared as if McGill's chief idea was to bring out the good points in the Toronto team, he said.

"I never saw prettier football than that played by Toronto. Queen's had a wonderful team with magnificent players."

The McGill Canadian Club was doing useful work amonf the students. Brilliant speakers such as Sir Robert Borden, Mr. Tom Moore and Lord Byng had addressed it during the year. Its proceedings were carried on entirely by the students.

At least three new buildings were badly needed at McGill, a Convocation Hall, dormitory building and gymnasium. There was some hope that the gymnasium would be started in the spring. It had been practically decided that it would be built on Sherbrooke street on the former site of the girls' rink. The plan for the building called for dormitories also, stated the speaker.

To date about $4,000,000 had been spent out of the $6,000,000 McGill had raised by public subscription three years ago. The two buildings already built out of the money raised were among the finest university buildings in America, he believed. He had high hopes that the remaining money would be used for the gymnasium and dorimtory although the Arts Building was badly in need of repairs.

The spirit of the McGill students was notably good. His wide experience told him that no college in Canada had a finer spirit among its students.

McGill possessed something unique among Canadian universities freedom from all sorts of "cant," and practically self government among the students.

"McGill is the finest educational institution in Canada as far as I know. The spirit you knew of is still there and it is wholly different from that in most universities. It is for you and me to see that the shadow of Old McGill shall never grow less," was the emphatic statement of the speaker.

McGill was developing one of the greatest schools of rench on the continent. That was an achievement of the past year. No other university had the environment. Apart from the apparent usefulness of the course it would be a direct contribution to Canadian unity, he believed. It was startling that in this country, officially bilingual, so few English-speaking people were able to speak French. The French summer school had been a distinct success.

A Department of Sociology had been added during the year. It was more advanced than the former Department of Social Service. Dr. C. Dawson, a graduate of Chicago University, was in charge of the work. There was a great demand for graduates in social service work.

A change had taken place in the Arts course curriculum. Instead of six subjects being compulsory during the first year only three were at present and the other three might be chosen from a long list. A great effort was being made to get the students to realize that it was not the lectures, but the subjects that they were studying. A growing course at McGill was the School of Commerce. The men and women being educated there were much better than most people thought.

Dean Laing believed that the creation of a Graduate Faculty was the most important event that had happened at McGill in years. The staff consited of those professors who had proved themselves capable of doing research work. There are now 85 graduate students attending McGill. The degree in chemistry and physics was up to the standard of any ogered in America. McGill needed fellowship in this department. One organization had offered a fellowship of $750 last week and the hope was expressed that others would be secured. It had been shown that $750 was sufficient to keep a man during the student years.

The vote of thanks to Dr. Laing was moved by Mr. Justice Mignault and seconded by Mr. P. D. Ross, who stated that he was more proud of the fact that he was a graduate of McGill than of anything else.
